pecial Examiners Making a Re count in Anne Arundel County. Director Merriam has received no in ormation from the investigating party ent out Tuesday night to locate the al ged frauds in the enumeration of the enisis of Anne Arumdel County, Md. There are eleven special examiners in the sarty, exclusive of Dr. Fred Wines, Asuperintend the work. It is understood at the Census Office that the party will have about two weeks' hard work before nything definite can be determined.

From what could be learned yesterday be officials fear that the fraud in the Anne Arundel enumeration will exceed that of St. Mary County. The special momerators began work early yester day morning. The difficulty in securing quick returns lies in the unsystematic nanner in which the census was enum rated in the first place. Many of the dis tricts were not gone over thoroughly, it is said, the enumerators contenting them seives with the data obtained from the heads of the families at the various coun try stores.

In some instances regular routes were ollowed by the agents and it will be com followed by the agents and it will be comparatively easy for the investigators to verify the count. Dr. Wines will remain in the held long enough to start the work of investigation.

Some of the districts in Anne Arundel County are large, one of them containing over 2,000 people. It is thought that a sufficient force has algendy been sent to the varrious points where fraud is auspected, but Director Merriam has given orders that the entire force of special examiners in the bureau be sent into the field if it becomes necessary.

The National-N. C. Goodwin, On next Monday evening Mr. N. C. Soodwin and Miss Maxine Elliott will commence their annual engagement at the New National Theatre, when they will undoubtedly be greeted by one of the most fashionable and brilliant auiences of the season. It is rarely so many enquiries for seats have been re-ceived in advance, and every indication points to the largest week's business that Washington.

"When We Were Twenty-one" has proven one of the most brilliant successes of the past two seasons, and the press and public bave been unanimous in pronouncing it one of the best come dies ever conceived. The story is origi-nal and the theme brilliant, and is full of poetic sentiment and refined comedy. The supporting company is said to be of nusual strength and the production vers tunity of seeing these co-stars for at least two years, as they will pass the whole of next season in London.

The Columbia-"Arizona."

The production of Augustus Thomas w comedy drama, "Arizona," at the Co-nbia Theatre next Monday will introduce to many Washington people, in its stage pictures and architecture, an ab-solute novelty. Walter Burridge and Charles Ritter, the artists who created the scenic investiture of "Arizona," made a trip out to the picturesque Southwestern Territory for the purpose of sketching "from life" the bits of "Aravaipa Valley" landscape and architecture which Mr. Thomas and his artistic mentor, Frederick Remington, insisted upon as the only possible enframement for the the only possible enframement for the dramatic story. The Mexican-Aztec architecture of dull-tinted adobe and brilliant red tiles, and the formal rectangular bits from Fort Grant army post, are characteristic of Arizona, possibly of New Mexico, but certainly of no other locality on the face of the earth.

In addition to elaborate and correct stage pictures, "Arizona" will be given with practically the same cast which shared in the triumphant run of 150 nights at the Herald Square Theatre, New York.

Chase's-Polite Vaudeville.

Otis Harlan, Clayton White, and Marle Stuart, assisted by Belle d'Arcy, the Quaker City Quartette, Pete Baker, Alice Raymond, and John Kurkamp, Les Trois de Regney, Gallando, and the biograph pictures, constitute the bill prepared for the patrons of Chase's next week. There will undoubtedly be a warm welcome awaiting Otis Harlan. In all his career with the Hoyt comedies he had not one fallure to his credit. And even in "Star and Garter" with the Agoust Family he made his role stand out with langhable distinctness. In vandeville he has at-tained a high position, and as a monologist is reputed to rank in the same lass as Ezra Kendall.

Last season Clayton White was the leading comedian of Charles Frohman's "The Cuckoo" company, which was seen in this city, and Marie Staart has some note as a singer and dancer of the French note as a singer and dancer of the French style. They have combined their efforts, and are presenting a langhable farce called "Dickey." The Quaker City Quartette was last here with Frimrose & Dockstader's Minstreis, and the assertion that it is the best of the kind will not by doubted by those who remember its fine musical and eccentric comedy features. Pete Baker continues his megaphone announcements, and according to the press agent has a fresh dialect monologue. Alice Raymond and John Kurkamp are well known musicians, who present their ability in a novelty creation called "The Concert Display." Miss Raymond is a fine cornetist. Les Trois de Reguey are a trio of French musical grofesques, who are newcomers here, but who are well credited. Gallando, a modeler in clay, will exhibit his skill with a number of new subjects of interest, and the biograph motion machine will have twelve interesting views, embracing the usual number of comic and news subjects.

Miss Haswell will play Martim Wolton, Miss Mackintosh, Mrs. Lorimer; Miss Grayoe Scott, Ethel, and Miss Field, Kitty. Other parts will be played by Messrs, Van Tyne, Ball, and Lunsford, Mrs. Craven, Florence Russell and Misses Fichelberger, Agnes Scott, Burson and McCracken.

The Academy-"Across the Pacific." The attraction at the Academy next week will be Charles E. Blaney's pro-duction of "Across the Pacific," of which Harry Clay Blaney is the comedian. The action takes place on board a to asport at Manila and in the Philippur Islands. Mr. Blaney never does things by halves, as will be remembered when the staging of "The King of the Opium Ring," "A Female Drummer," and "The Electri-cian" is recalled.

"Across the Pacific" should prove a most interesting entertainment, as the material is prolific of good, wholesome opportunity. The interpreting company will comprise the following well-known people: Harry Clay Blaney, Robert Gaillard Leslie Mathews, O'Kane Hillis, J. P. Tacker, Chinese Johnnis Williams, Pearl Seward, Gracie Hull, Anna Layug, and many others.

The usual Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday matiness will be given.

The Bijou-May Howard's Burles quers.

May Howard and her band of bur esquers will return to the Bibu next

The success made by this company on the consion of its previous appearance here was such as to warrant the management of the Bijou in offering Miss Howard a ery substantial guarantee for anoth isit, and there is small doubt but that text week will witness one of the mo successful periods of prosperity that the heatre has enjoyed during the present theatre has enjoyed during the present year. The company will be practically the same as when seen in Washington earlier in the year, but there are promised sev-eral novelties which should greatly im-prove the programme. The olfo will be contributed by a dozen excellent vaude-ville acts, while the usual two burlesques will bring into view the entire company, which is said to be remarkably strong in its chorus, and which, according to the claims of the management, consists of twenty-five attractive and talented young women. There will be a daily matinee.
